

INTEGRITY CODING/BILLING AND EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Are you looking to start a professional career that will give you the flexibility you need...

While giving you an earning potential you never thought possible without going to college?

Have you considered the field of Medical Coding?

I will be teaching an eight-week Introduction to Medical Coding starting Thursday, April 27, 2017 until Thursday, June 15 from 6:00 until 8:00 pm in Woburn, Ma. This class will be an introduction to what medical coding is and how it all works. We will be covering the following subjects:

- ✓ Medical Terminology
- ✓ ICD 10 Coding Guidelines
- ✓ CPT Coding
- ✓ Several coding scenarios from each chapter of your CPT book
- ✓ Operative Reports

There are no prerequisites for attending the class but it is highly recommended that the student has a working knowledge of Medical Terminology and Anatomy and Physiology. The cost of the course is $135.00. Each student is responsible for bringing the following course materials:

- ✓ CPT-must be 2017
- ✓ ICD-10 CM-2013 and beyond USED IS FINE
- ✓ HCPCS Level II-2013 and beyond USED IS FINE
- ✓ 2017 CPC Practice Exam-You can purchase this at Barnesandnoble.com or Amazon. This is published by Medical billing and medical coding.
- ✓ Large Index Cards for medical terminology
