Thimble Islands Cruise

July 12th, 2014 (Saturday Day Trip)

Complete Cost $99.00 Per Person

The "Thimbles" have often been described as "a piece of the Maine coast that drifted into Long Island Sound...". Summer excursion vessels plied these waters during the "golden age" of the Victorian Era. Twenty-three of the islands are large enough to be inhabited.

Approximately 85 homes, built mostly during the Victorian Era, are complete with widow walks, gingerbread trimmings, and genteel gazebos. Islands range in all sizes, and have spartina and pink granite with the larger ones boasting scrub pine & hardwoods, making the islands appear to be deceivingly tropical in nature.

Martha's Vineyard

July 26th, 2014 Saturday Day Trip
Complete Cost $89 per person

Martha's Vineyard ...

Rich in History and a favorite Summer Haven for many notables over the years. The original people of Martha's Vineyard included the Native American Wampanoags. Unable to prove, but it's believed that the first humans probably came here at the end of the Ice Age, but before the sea levels changed and the Island was formed. Native American camps that carbon-date to 2270 B.C. have been uncovered on the Island. As you tour the island, you will learn the rich history of immigrants from England and the Cape Verde island, farmers, fisherman, blacksmiths and merchants who settled here as a safe haven. Through the colonial period, raiding British, the Age of Whaling and the Civil War, Martha's Vineyard became a nurturing place where all peoples could prosper.
